Ash Wednesday – 26th of February

Lent begins on Wednesday 26th of February and ashes will be distributed at the 10am Mass in Halston Street as well as the 8am & 7.30pm Masses in Church Street.

Home Blessings

Will take place on Tuesday 25th and Thursday 27th of February between 6pm and 8pm. The blessing only takes a few minutes.

Tuesday 25th: St Michan's House Block A & B, C & D

Thursday 27th: Ormond Square, Beresford Street, Kevin Barry, Church Street, Charlotte Street West.

If you haven't given your name and would like your house blessed, please let Fr Martin know and he will add you to the list.

Our Deepest Sympathy

We wish to express our deepest sympathy to the family and friends of Glenn Chapman and Tommy O'Brien. May their souls rest in Peace. Amen.

Let us know if you can help in the parish in any way.

We are looking for people to serve in many ways including on the Parish Pastoral Council.

The first Novena of Grace to be preached in Ireland was held in Halston Street Parish in 1712. The Parish has held a Novena of Grace every year for over 300 years. We invite you to join us for this year's Novena. Confessions available before Mass each evening. Blessing with the cross of St Francis Xavier on the final night.

Book Promotion – Saturday 22nd February, 6pm Mass

This Saturday Gerard Gallagher (Pastoral Coordinator for the Archdiocese of Dublin) will introduce his book of reflections for Lent called 'Return to me with all your heart'. Copies of the book will be available for sale on Saturday evening and Sunday at the special price of €5 (usually €7.99). Gerard is the responsible for the second church of our Parish, St Paul's Arran Quay and we are hoping to plan a collaborative event between Halston Street and St Paul's for April for our old folks. More details to follow.
